JOB APPLICATIONS

How applicants apply for jobs depends on the company, as well. Some companies use applicant tracking systems to accept applications for employment and to screen and select candidates to interview

JOB INTERVIEWS

As candidates move through the interview process, they may be interviewed several times prior to receiving a job offer or a rejection notice. Companies will also run background checks, reference checks, and possibly a credit check as part of the recruitment process.

LISTING JOBS ON COMPANY WEBSITES

Most larger companies, and many smaller companies, post available jobs on their company website. Job applicants can search for jobs, review job listings and apply for jobs online. Job seekers may be able to set up job search agents to notify them via email of new openings. Some companies schedule interviews online, as well.
